

In the morning of March 14, 2018, at the National Library of Vietnam, Mr. Nguyen Xuan Dung - Deputy Director and several Heads of NLV's Departments have welcomed Mr. Andrey V. Zaytsev, Deputy Head of Technology, Presidential Library of the Russian Federation and Ms. Natalia Valerievna Shafinskaia, Director of the Center for Science and Culture of Russia in Ha Noi to the National Library of Viet Nam. The Presidential Library of the Russian Federation is a digital library and is now prioritizing the development of international cooperation related to collections of Russian materials, about Russia and relations between Russia and partner countries. At the meeting, Mr. Andrey V. Zaytsev emphasized the possibility of exchanging digital materials in this field with the National Library of Viet Nam and was pleased to announce that his library has just created a new digital collection about Russian-Vietnamese Relations in Russian. He wished this valuable collection can be introduced to the large public through the National Library of Viet Nam. Ms. Natalia Valerievna Shafinskaia, Director of the Center for Science and Culture of Russia in Ha Noi, also affirmed her willingness to be a bridge for the two Libraries to continue exchanging and advancing to specific partnerships that both have advantages. Speaking at the reception, Mr. Nguyen Xuan Dung appreciated the effective and traditional cooperation between the National Library of Viet Nam and the libraries of the Russian Federation in the past, he also thanked the goodwill of the two agencies and appreciate the idea of cooperation related to digital collections of Russian-Vietnamese relations available at the Presidential Library of the Russian Federation. The National Library of Viet Nam will try to further develop this relationship and hope that the visit of the representatives of the Russian Presidential Library will open new opportunities for cooperation in the future between the two libraries. .
