After the exhibition's opening ceremony, a workshop to introduce the autobiography by Eva Perón "The reason of my life" published by The Gioi Publishing House was held. The autobiography focuses on ideological content and activities of Eva Perón during her short but profound time for political activity. This is considered the most typical theme of Perónism and of a period that has changed the nation Argentina. The book has been translated into Vietnamese and will be introduced to readers in the coming time.

This event and other activities of the Argentine Cultural Week in Viet Nam will bring to Vietnamese people interesting discoveries about the culture, people and beautiful Argentina, contribute to strengthen the understanding, solidarity and friendship relations between Governments and peoples of the two countries.

The photos exhibition "Eva Perón - Ambassador of Peace" will open until December 12, 2013.
