

Focusing on the 10 main topics such as Library – Information Science, Applied Sciences, Arts, Social Sciences, Education, anthropology, etc.; Wilson is a multi-structural database providing users full contents on index, abstracts and full-text documents. Stored in CD-R format, this database was bought by the NLV and installed at a server located in the Multimedia Room. The database can be accessed at the NLV only

Users can access this service at Multimedia Room on the 2nd floor of Building D