

The 86th World Library and Information Congress of the International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA WLIC 86) was held online on August 17-19, 2021.

The IFLA WLIC 86 with the theme “Let’s Work Together for the Future” drew more than 2,750 attendees representing 125 countries to more than 160 sessions, 90 hours of content, and received 11,461 online comments from all around the world. The sessions focused on discussing how libraries can join and contribute to the partnership to address two key issues: cultural integration into common development and climate action, based on the library’s efforts in Inspiration-Inclusion-Commitment -Innovation and Sustainability.

The image shows a Zoom meeting interface. At the top left, there is a green checkmark and a red recording icon with the text "Recording". Below this, there is a grid of video thumbnails. The top row contains four thumbnails: a woman with a Vietnamese flag, a green "Thank you" slide with a globe and "BRITISH LIBRARY" text, a man with a headset, and a man with a face mask. The bottom row contains two thumbnails: a woman with glasses and a man with glasses. Below the thumbnails is a control bar with icons for Unmute, Stop Video, Participants (63), Chat (1), Share Screen, Raise Hand, and Live Transcript. A large blacked-out area covers the bottom portion of the screen.
