

In the morning of April 26, 2011, the National Library of Vietnam (NLV) received Hanoi French Club delegation headed by Ms. Alexandra De Broca, French Lady Ambassador to Vietnam at the NLV.

Hanoi French club is an organization for French-speaking people and their families currently living and working in Hanoi. Founded about 15 years ago, the current total members of the club are up to 500 people from 180 families. Every year, a number of cultural and sports activities have been organized by the club.

Hanoi French club delegation visits the National Library of Vietnam

At the reception, Ms. Phan Thi Kim Dung, director of the NLV has delivered a brief presentation of the library history, collections and services as well as the fruitful development and progress of the NLV – Francophone agencies and organizations relations recently, especially the cooperation relationship between the NLV and the National Library of France as well as with national libraries in the Francophone community.

Ms. Phan Thi Kim Dung, director of the NLV delivers the welcome speech to Hanoi French Club

At the Indochina Storage

News/Mường Chi, Photos/Hung Minh Hanoi French club delegates