

On October 20th 2011, the National Library of Vietnam (NLV) has held a book donation ceremony from La Trobe University, Australia to NLV.

The distinguished guests at the Ceremony

Presented at the ceremony were Mr. Nguyen Van Tinh – Director of the International Co-operation Department; Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism of Vietnam (Mocst);

Mr.Allaster Cox – Australian Ambassador to Vietnam; Nguyen Hai Anh – Director of Emulation and Award, Mocst; Mr.Nguyen Huu Gioi-Vice Director of Library Department, Mocst; Mr.Ly Ba Toan - Deputy Director General of Publishing Directorare, Ministry of Information and Communication; Mr.Le Van Viet and Dang Van Uc, Deputy Director of the NLV; Mr.Leon J.Lyell-Executive Manager, La Trobe University, Australia; Ms. Kerry Amery, Associate University Librarian, Information Services, La Trobe University Library, Australia and many former students of La Trobe University in Vietnam

Dr. Le Van Viet Deputy Director of NLV receives donated books from La Trobe University

At the ceremony, La Trobe University has presented NLV more than 500 books in English in many subjects areas such as Science, Education, Finance, Literature, Maths etc. This is the 2nd time La Trobe University donating books to NLV and has become one of supplementary source of valuable English books for Vietnamese readers to get access to advanced knowledge of Australia.

Mr. Nguyen Van Tinh presents souvenirs to the Australian Ambassador and the representative from La Trobe University

---

Article; photo: Hùng Mạnh