

On the morning of January 4, 2022, the National Library of Viet Nam (NLV) presented 1,200 books to the Library-Documentation Center, under the Department for Judicial Affairs and Scientific Management, the Supreme People's Court (SPC). This is a regular activity of the NLV to support materials for agencies under ministries, and libraries across the country in order to spread, inspire and develop reading culture in the community and society.

Attending the Book Presentation Ceremony, representing the NLV, there were Ms. Kieu Thuy Nga – Secretary of the Party Committee, Director; Mr. Nguyen Xuan Dzung – Deputy Secretary of the Party Committee, Deputy Director; Ms. Bui Thi Thuy – Head of Acquisition and Exchange Division. On the SPC side, there were Mr. Nguyen Van Du – Member of the Party Personnel Committee, Deputy Chief Justice; Mr. Nguyen Chi Cong, Director of the Judicial Affairs and Scientific Management Department, and civil servants and public employees of the two agencies.

At the ceremony, the NLV presented more than 1,200 copies of books covering many fields, of which about 750 books are in Vietnamese, 450 books are in such foreign languages as Russian, English, Chinese, Korean, and some Korean-English bilingual books. In addition to more than 500 copies of books on the field of law, the NLV also selected and presented books on many different fields such as politics, history, culture, literature, arts, sciences, education, medicine, common sense...

On behalf of the Library-Documentation Center SPC, Mr. Nguyen Van Du – Member of the Party Personnel Committee, Deputy Chief Justice expressed his gratitude for the enthusiastic support of the NLV, and affirmed that the 1,200 copies of books received from the NLV are valuable source of information to help officials and civil servants of the SPC in their professional work. He hoped that the NLV would continue to cooperate, support and coordinate with the Library-Documentation Center in many future activities.

Speaking at the Book Presentation Ceremony, Ms. Kieu Thuy Nga – Secretary of the Party Committee, Director of the NLV hoped that the above books would supplement and enrich the information and documentation resources of the Library-Documentation Center, support officials and civil servants of the SPC in professional activities as well as help them grasp the knowledge about the development of our nation and other countries in the world. Besides, she also expressed her hope that the two sides will continue to have more effective cooperation activities in the coming time.
