

In the morning of 24 Oct.2012, at the National Library of Vietnam (NLV), Mr. Christian Bourgoignie – Head of the Wallonie-Bruxels in Vietnam has visited and donated NLV 24 books on social sciences and humanities.

Starting in 2001, the Wallonie-Bruxelles International has carried out a program to promote international publications on social and humanities in French, published in Wallonie and Bruxelles. This program takes place annually with aims to give scientific books to the Universities which are partners of the joined project of Wallonie Bruxelles, at the same time to meet the partner's desire to consolidate material resources. These publications were selected by a Selection Committee including many experts in the field of book so they are ensured in the quality of information and level of the knowledge.

Mrs. Phan Thi Kim Dzong – Director of NLV receives donated books from Mr. Christian Bourgoignie – Head of the Wallonie-Bruxelles Delegation in Vietnam

NLV has become the official partner of the project since 2010 and received annual donated books from Wallonie-Bruxelles International. The 24 books donated by the Wallonie-Bruxelles not only to reflect the areas of social sciences and humanities, languages, international relations, economic community etc. of Belgium and French speaking community of Belgium but also reflect a diverse picture of the Francophone community in Europe, Africa and America.

It can be said that this is an additional source of the high quality French books to NLV. These books will help readers in Vietnam to add knowledge of the social sciences and humanities as well as learn more about the language, international relations and economics of Francophone community worldwide.

Photos of the same event:

Mr. Christian Bourgoignie and colleagues works with Director of NLV and related Divisions

Mrs. Phan Th  Kim Dung gives Mr Christian Bourgoignie souvenir

